

News and Comment
Written by Experts

STAR-BULLETIN SPORTS

Edited By
L. REDINGTON

Bat Nelson Would Be Manager
Kid McCoy Hangers After Job

Evidently the announcement from Willie Ritchie that in future his business affairs will be handled by his brother, Henry Steffen, was not taken altogether seriously in certain parts of the East. Or, at all events, various men who have been associated with the boxing game and whose time doubtless hangs heavy on their hands, concluded it would not be an altogether hopeless task to apply for the position.

HORSE SOLDIERS WIN A SLIPSHOD GAME FROM 1ST ARMY LEAGUE

The 1st infantry baseball fans were given a rude shock yesterday when their team went down before the 4th Cavalry. It was an unsatisfactory game all around, and both teams left the field with the feeling that they did not perform up to standard, although the horse soldiers were quite ready to let well enough alone, as they came out on the long end.

Table with columns: W, L, Pat. Rows: 2d Infantry, 1st Infantry, Field Infantry, Coast Defense, 4th Cavalry, 25th Infantry.

Table with columns: AB, R, BH, SB, PO, A, E. Rows: Leekman, Judd, Wilson, E. Mason, G. Mason, M. Mason, Spetz, Mount, Kator, Stavosky, York, Backus.

Table with columns: AB, R, BH, SB, PO, A, E. Rows: Roberts, Murphy, De Swan, Tuohy, Renowsky, Button, Hyges, Kirby, Oakes, Pankam, Hickey, Backus.

WINONA Arrow Notch COLLAR 2 for 25 cents. Cluett, Peabody & Co. Inc. Makers

CALIFORNIA IS READY FOR OUR BASEBALL CLUBS

[By Latest Mail]
By HARRY CREECH
OAKLAND, CAL.—Final arrangements sending the victorious Blue and Gold baseball aggregation to Hawaii as a climax to one of the most unique seasons in U. C. ball tossing have been completed. Eleven men with Coach Jimmy Schaeffer will compose the party and they will leave San Francisco June 3, on the steamer Lurline.

The Californians will be on the island about three weeks and are expected to play about four games per week. The matches for the most part will be with teams of the Oahu league, which has a reputation for playing "name ball."

Couch Schaeffer has not as yet announced the personnel of his charges, but he has stated that men who played in the intercollegiate series will be given first choice, provided their scholarship is up to standard.

The season which this trip will bring to a close has been disconcertingly erratic, but on the whole, brilliantly successful. Seventeen victories, eighteen defeats and two ties has been the lot of the Blue and Gold Varsity nine.

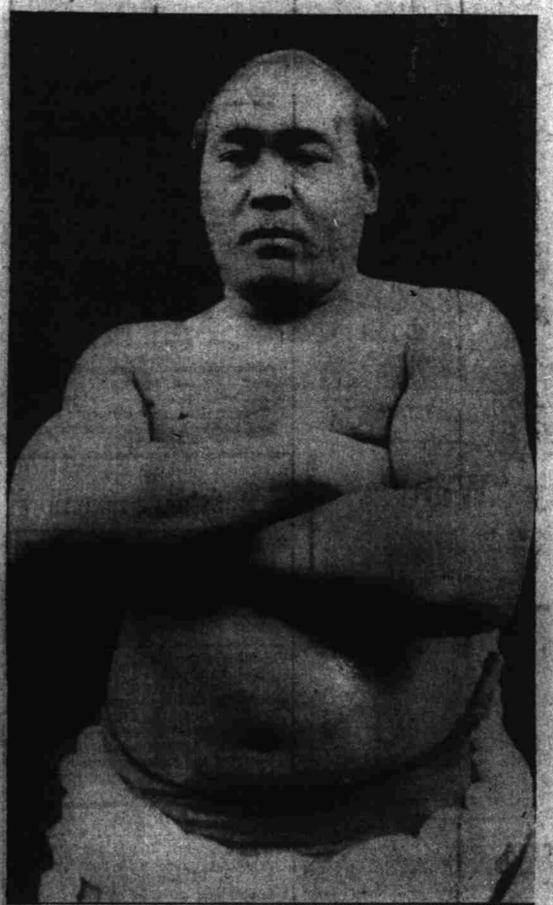

The last eight games, however, following the first Cardinal contest, have all been victories for California, which is indeed an enviable record. The semester compares very favorably with last spring's result of thirteen victories, fifteen defeats, and the loss of the Standard series.

Much credit is due Coach Schaeffer for the season's success. The first of February, he began work with five veterans short. There was only one pitcher, one out-fielder, and three infielders who had played in an intercollegiate series.

The Heanani club met yesterday in a hard-hitting aggregation. Their general average is 270. Captain Rubke, though out of the game for nearly three weeks, heads the list with an average of 406, followed by Sebastian, 358; O'Hara, 245; Dodson, 223; Glanville, 206; and Ford, 171. In the Standard series, Captain-elect Dodson heads the list with 597.

Next season's baseball prospects seem unusually bright. Eleven Big C men will return to the campus in the fall and form a nucleus for next year's nine. Those who will be back are O'Hara, Adair, Ford, Young, Glanville, Hayes, Dodson, Sebastian, Gleney, Dudge and Gelfin. Captain Dodson will thus start proceedings with a complete veteran outfield and a complete infield save for the absence of Rubke at short.

TACHIYAMA, KING OF JAPANESE WRESTLERS, TO BE SEEN HERE

M. TACHIYAMA.

As told in the Star-Bulletin Tuesday, the flower of Japan's wrestling talent will make a trip to Hawaii next July, when Honolulu fans will have a chance to see the Nipponese style of grappling to best advantage.

STAR-BULLETIN WILL PUBLISH TEN OF VAN LOAN'S BASEBALL YARNS

Every fan who knows the literature of modern baseball has heard of Charles E. Van Loan, newspaper and magazine writer, whose clever stories of the diamond can be ranked among the classics of sport. Many have read some of Van Loan's "stuff" and many more know it by reputation.

The Star-Bulletin will print 10 of Van Loan's best baseball stories on the sporting page of the paper, the first installment of "The Ten Thousand Dollar Arm" appearing tomorrow. Each story will be divided into two or three installments, according to length, which will be published on successive days, so that readers may follow the thread without interruption.

These 10 stories are chock full of interest, human nature, and baseball lore. They tell about the national game in all its phases, and hold the interest from start to finish. Van Loan has a happy turn of phrase, and a keen sense of humor, which, combined with a thorough knowledge of the game, make his diamond yarns the most interesting ever written.

TY COBB'S BATTING HAS FALLEN WAY OFF: PHELAN IN NATIONAL

[By Latest Mail]
CHICAGO.—Ty Cobb has dropped nearly out of sight among the batters of the American league, according to averages issued May 2. The Detroit slugger who struck a snag in the St. Louis pitchers early in the week, ranks thirty-eighth and has an average of only .240.

Wood of Cleveland is leading the batters with .467 for five games, and then, in the first eleven, came Williams, St. Louis, .429; Demmitt, Chicago, .417; Crawford, Detroit, .412; Jackson, Cleveland, .395; E. Foster, Washington, .390; C. Walker, St. Louis, .356; Collins, Chicago, .341; Ainsmith, Washington, .333; McInnis, Philadelphia, .333; Lellvelt, Cleveland, .333.

St. Louis, batting .255, leads the clubs, and Cleveland is next with .353. Hitting the ball at the rate of .509, Art Phelan, the Cubs' pinch batter, is ahead in the National Gonzales of Cincinnati is next with .500.

GOLF GOSSIP

The following is from Golf Illustrated and gives a very just description of each of the men on whom the hopes of America are fixed:
The amateur championship of 1914 promises to be most brilliant. It is just 10 years since W. J. Travis sprang a surprise on British golfers by winning the event from a field which included at least half a dozen men who might reasonably have expected to beat the American seven times out of 10.

Travers Must be Reckoned With
Jerome D. Travers has consolidated his game considerably since 1909. He has arrived in England, and is giving himself every opportunity of becoming familiar with the St. George's course. There is no more pressing match play in the world at the present day, if America's hopes rested on him alone their chances would still be bright.

Francis Gulmet, with the charm of extreme youth, and the glimmer of a brilliant victory over Vardon and Hay last autumn in the American open championship, promises to be the star of the American company. As Gulmet has taken no part in any serious competitive golf since his phenomenal performance, it is impossible to say whether his great effort at Brookline was a true measure of his skill, or a sudden inspiration of the "single speech Hamilton" order.

Charles Evans is a golfer of quite a different stamp from Travers or Gulmet. A sound judge of the game has described him as the finest amateur golfer in America. And he would certainly appear to have a more classic style and a greater variety of execution than any of his fellow countrymen. On the other hand, in point of temperament he is distinctly inferior. Not by reason of any want of pluck; but, on the contrary, from an excess of lightheartedness and an inability to make the best of a winning game.

British lion tremble!
Charles Evans is a golfer of quite a different stamp from Travers or Gulmet. A sound judge of the game has described him as the finest amateur golfer in America. And he would certainly appear to have a more classic style and a greater variety of execution than any of his fellow countrymen.

Charles Evans is a golfer of quite a different stamp from Travers or Gulmet. A sound judge of the game has described him as the finest amateur golfer in America. And he would certainly appear to have a more classic style and a greater variety of execution than any of his fellow countrymen.

Charles Evans is a golfer of quite a different stamp from Travers or Gulmet. A sound judge of the game has described him as the finest amateur golfer in America. And he would certainly appear to have a more classic style and a greater variety of execution than any of his fellow countrymen.

Charles Evans is a golfer of quite a different stamp from Travers or Gulmet. A sound judge of the game has described him as the finest amateur golfer in America. And he would certainly appear to have a more classic style and a greater variety of execution than any of his fellow countrymen.

GOOD TENNIS SEEN IN PUNAHOU TOURNAMENT

Two fast matches in the Punahou Academy's boys' doubles handicap tennis tournament were played yesterday afternoon, on the Alexander courts. O'Dowda and Ranton defeated Edlund and Baldwin 10-8, 8-6, and Lafollette and Ebersole won over Hitchcock and Hardy 9-2, 5-7, 5-2.

Charles Evans is a golfer of quite a different stamp from Travers or Gulmet. A sound judge of the game has described him as the finest amateur golfer in America. And he would certainly appear to have a more classic style and a greater variety of execution than any of his fellow countrymen.

Charles Evans is a golfer of quite a different stamp from Travers or Gulmet. A sound judge of the game has described him as the finest amateur golfer in America. And he would certainly appear to have a more classic style and a greater variety of execution than any of his fellow countrymen.

Charles Evans is a golfer of quite a different stamp from Travers or Gulmet. A sound judge of the game has described him as the finest amateur golfer in America. And he would certainly appear to have a more classic style and a greater variety of execution than any of his fellow countrymen.

Charles Evans is a golfer of quite a different stamp from Travers or Gulmet. A sound judge of the game has described him as the finest amateur golfer in America. And he would certainly appear to have a more classic style and a greater variety of execution than any of his fellow countrymen.

Charles Evans is a golfer of quite a different stamp from Travers or Gulmet. A sound judge of the game has described him as the finest amateur golfer in America. And he would certainly appear to have a more classic style and a greater variety of execution than any of his fellow countrymen.

Charles Evans is a golfer of quite a different stamp from Travers or Gulmet. A sound judge of the game has described him as the finest amateur golfer in America. And he would certainly appear to have a more classic style and a greater variety of execution than any of his fellow countrymen.

Charles Evans is a golfer of quite a different stamp from Travers or Gulmet. A sound judge of the game has described him as the finest amateur golfer in America. And he would certainly appear to have a more classic style and a greater variety of execution than any of his fellow countrymen.

Drew Expects to See 0:09 Man Says Day of Speed Is Coming

Howard Drew of the University of Southern California, and the fastest amateur runner afoot, says that men are running faster every year, and that before he gets too old to watch a race he expects to see a hundred sprinted in 0:09.

YESTERDAY'S SCORES IN THE BIG LEAGUES

Table with columns: AMERICAN LEAGUE, NATIONAL LEAGUE. Rows: At Chicago, At Brooklyn, At Boston, At Philadelphia.

How They Stand

Table with columns: AMERICAN LEAGUE, NATIONAL LEAGUE. Rows: Detroit, Philadelphia, New York, St. Louis, Chicago, Washington, Boston, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, New York, Philadelphia, Brooklyn, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Chicago, Boston.

If You're a Baseball Fan Read Van Loan's Great

BIG LEAGUE STORIES. I—THE TEN THOUSAND DOLLAR ARM II—SWEENEY TO SANGUINETTI TO SCHULTZ III—THE LOOSENING UP OF HOGAN IV—THE PHANTOM LEAGUE V—BEHIND THE MASK VI—N'CLUSKEY'S PRODIGAL VII—A RAIN CHECK VIII—THE COMEBACK WE WILL PRINT THEM